

End Goal	Outcomes within the sector	Outcomes within Triangle Trust	Triangle Trust Outputs	Who?	Triangle Trust Activity
Young people in contact with, or at high risk of contact with, the criminal justice system will reduce first offences or reoffending rates and move on positively with their lives.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • More support is available for young people to help them avoid offending or reoffending • Work that aims to achieve long term systemic change for young people linked to both offending and the root causes behind this is funded • Better evidence is available about what success looks like and what works well • Grantees are able to share challenges and achievements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust builds up expertise and knowledge in the area of young people and the criminal justice sector • Triangle Trust is recognised as being an expert funder in this field and is associated with this issue and area. • Triangle Trust is able to use its independence and assets to showcase good work and highlight issues and areas that need support 	2023-2028 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10-12 delivery grants awarded – over 2 years in duration, at £80k each. • Two rounds per year with an annual budget of up to £800,000 • Annual theme for funding that identifies issue, group or intervention as focus • Between 50-60 grants made over five years. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Trust will run the open grant programme and work will be funded from the Trust's endowment. • In future years partnership funding may be identified through collaborations with other funders – this could be an aim for strategic grants. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust runs a funding programme that aims to prevent young people on the edge of criminality from entering the criminal justice system and young people already in it to move on and positively rebuild their lives. • Funding is available twice a year under annual themes that link to either an approach/methodology or priority beneficiary group.
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consultancy and mentoring provided to up to 60 grantees • Themed webinars provided based on grantee needs and requests 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cranfield Trust and Triangle Trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust runs the Spark Programme in partnership with Cranfield Trust to build the capacity of grantees

Young people in contact with, or at high risk of contact with, the criminal justice system will reduce first offences or reoffending rates and move on positively with their lives.	and learn from each other, increasing their likelihood of a successful intervention <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grantees strengthen their core functions and their organisations become more resilient over the long term 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A thematic cohort of up to 12 grantees per year each year. • 2 Peer2Peer Exchanges (5 sessions) run each year. • Annual meet up of whole cohort. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cranfield Trust and Triangle Trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust creates a cohort model for grantees funded under each theme. • Each cohort will be split into two groups and participate in Peer2Peer sessions in year 1 and then meet annually as a group over the X year grant period.
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • X number of strategic grants made with an annual budget of around £200,000. • X number of strategic grants made over five years. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Trust will actively identify opportunities for strategic grants through sector networking, current knowledge, grant applications and research. • In future years partnership funding may be identified through collaborations with other funders. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust makes strategic grants that will focus on policy work, long term campaigns, short term campaigns and supporting infrastructure/developments. This work may also address the root causes that lead to a young person offending.
			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TBC 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Trust's Investment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Triangle Trust considers making social investments to

				Committee will identify and consider opportunities to make suitable investments that meet the Trust's Investment Policy.	support work that links to the strategy goal both by addressing current needs of young people and earlier interventions that have the potential to disrupt a young person's entry into offending behaviour.
--	--	--	--	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--